To
MR. MORTON WAYNE

Classwork is a song with him.

His genial smile greets every class.

DEDICATION

Familiar to everyone at Pittsfield High School, Mr. Wayne is a key figure in promoting and maintaining school spirit. Whether it be a rally called at the last minute or a musical program months in preparation, Mr. Wayne is on the job, reminding band members to "bring instruments and lyres." No detail escapes his notice, even to arranging the chairs on stage. At football games he is there on the fifty-yard line leading the band in "Now's the Time." Band, orchestra, dance band, Choraleers, Christmas assemblies, Senior Class productions — what would school be like without them, and what would they be like without Mr. Wayne?

Commuting over one hundred thousand miles to Columbia University for weekend and summer study, he has earned his doctorate in music the hard way; but at Pittsfield High School he still prefers the much more informal title of "Mr."

He is always ready with a genial smile and a cheerful hello. Whether it is "Mr. Wayne, I forgot my horn," or "Mr. Wayne, I lost my music composition," he never loses patience with us. He has a way of asking us to do things that makes us want to do them. And the confidence he has shown in us is mirrored by the respect we feel for him.

Because of his untiring efforts in behalf of Pittsfield High School and because of the great admiration we have for him, the class of 1962 dedicates its yearbook to Mr. Morton Wayne.

DR. EDWARD J. RUSSELL

Ever True

to His Mission

to Open the Heart

and Illuminate the Mind

Mr. Joseph J. Canavan presents Dr. Russell with one of the gifts at the testimonial dinner in his honor.

To Dr. Edward J. Russell, whose dedicated mind and heart have for so long guided the Pittsfield school system, the class of 1962 pays special tribute. With his retirement in November of 1961 Dr. Russell ended a career of forty-one years in local education, twenty-seven of them as superintendent of schools. This distinguished public servant left a record of which he and his city can well be proud.

Perhaps no tribute could sum up his ideals and his philosophy of education better than his own final words in his response at the testimonial banquet in his honor:

"May our system go from strength to strength, ever true to its mission to open the heart and illuminate the mind, so that Pittsfield may be blessed with an ever greater generation of thoughtful, wholesome boys and girls, a credit to their parents, their schools, and their community, true to the highest values of our culture."

We are proud to have been educated under his capable leadership, and we wish him every happiness in the future.

Foreword

No one knows what the future holds in store for the members of the class of 1962 in the way of vocations, success, and happiness. Although we shall all go our separate ways into many walks of life and various corners of the world, we can be certain of one thing: we shall always be bound together by the common tie of memories of our three years at P.H.S. These years have been an important factor in determining our social, intellectual, and cultural outlook on life. We shall always remember P.H.S. as an institution whose faculty was dedicated to teaching us the intellectual and practical skills which would prepare us to take our place in society as useful citizens. The hours of study, the excitement of a football game, the merriment of the Prom, and the warmth of the friendships we found within the ivied walls — all these are part of the picture. We, the Class of 1962, have endeavored to make The Dome a book of memories, which through the years may bring to mind many pleasant thoughts when we turn its pages and say, "Remember when . . . . . ."

Tune: "All Through the Night"

Guardian elm trees cast their shadows
O'er thy ivied walls;
Sons and daughters ever loyal
Throng thy honored halls.
Pittsfield High School, Pittsfield High School
Alma Mater dear,
Help us to preserve thy honor
Through the coming year.

Great has been thy former record,
Greater will it be
As the future generations
Sing their praise to thee.
Proud are we who through thy portals
Into life do pass;
Help us ever to be worthy,
Each and every class.

Junior class officers and their dates

Of our many fond memories of happy times at Pittsfield High School, one of the most pleasant is our Junior Prom. It was held on May 30, 1961, in the gym, which had been transformed by talented decorators into a beautiful and imaginative Plantation Paradise.

The highlight of the evening was the selection of Paula Domenichini as Queen of the Prom, with Sally Campoli and Leslie Marco as her attendants.

As we danced to the lovely music of Dick Russo, we could not help thinking that Kathleen Chiorgno and Allen Skogsberg, the co-chairmen, had done a wonderful job in making the Junior Prom, our first "real" class activity, a great success, an event not soon to be forgotten.

The 1961 Pittsfield High School football team, for the third straight year, won the Western Massachusetts Class A, Berkshire County, and City Championship titles with a 7-0-1 record. In these three years the team has compiled an outstanding 22-0-2 record, regaining for our school the gridiron supremacy in Western Massachusetts.

Coach Joe Gleason, in his first year as head coach at Pittsfield High School, molded this championship team around a sturdy nucleus of veteran seniors, including linemen, Jim Collins, Steve Ciepela, and John Farrell and hard running backfield men, Gary Sitcer, and Ray Woitkowski. Evidence of Coach Gleason's success in both the offensive and defensive phases of the game is that the team scored 222 points and allowed only 38 points to its opponents.

The season was highlighted by Pittsfield's successful debut in class A.A. football in which they beat West Springfield High 24-12 in an exhibition contest. Although this game had no influence on our league record, it boosted the team's morale and the school's prestige.

Six P.H.S. players earned starting berths on the All-Berkshire team: Steve Ciepela, Jim Collins, Gary Sitcer, Fran Reardon, Bob Bard, and Ray Woitkowski with Woitkowski capturing high scoring honors in Western Massachusetts with 110 points.

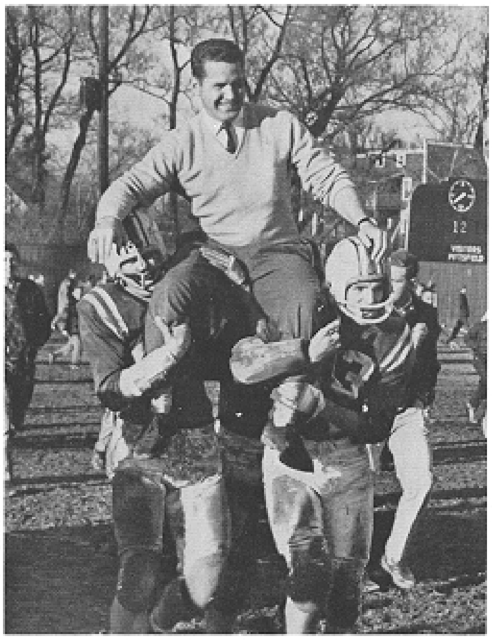

That looks like paydirt!

Although handicapped by a lack of seasoned material, Coach Frank Blowe's hockey team enjoyed one of its finest seasons in the past few years. With only three letter men as a nucleus, the team finished the season with a 2-6 record in a rugged prep-school schedule. Led by Captain John Rodda, Pittsfield's pucksters — Pierre Levesque, Bill Kozack, John McCormick, Kippy Syrett, and Pete Curley — were real scrappers on the ice.

For the second year in a row the P.H.S. ski team scored a win in the Berkshire Interscholastic Ski Meet, beating many strong prep school teams. Also for the second year in a row, Collin Garstang won the Skimeister Award. The team, under the fine coaching of Rudy Benedetti, turned in a very creditable performance even though conditions were too poor for intensive workouts for a month prior to the meet. In other meets the team scored only one loss, making 1961-1962 a very successful season.

CLASS

Do you remember how confusing everything was on that fateful first day? All the different floors, stairways, people, rooms, people, and even more people! It was especially interesting if you had one of those elevator schedules — first floor, second floor, gym, third floor, first floor. Too bad none of us had thought to bring a compass!

"And in the beginning there were . . . " A-periods, B-periods, G. A. A. meetings, general assemblies, S.A.S., and football meetings. Whoopee! No time for classes! But never underestimate the power of a teacher. All sorts of homework could be whipped up at a moment's notice!

Do you remember the pencil sharpeners that never worked?
the long, cold, cold waits outside in the morning until the bell rang?
the fire drills that were the answers to those test questions?

And then there was Brigadoon — "There my heart forever lies." A wee bit o' Scotland awoke for a day and stole a piece of our hearts.

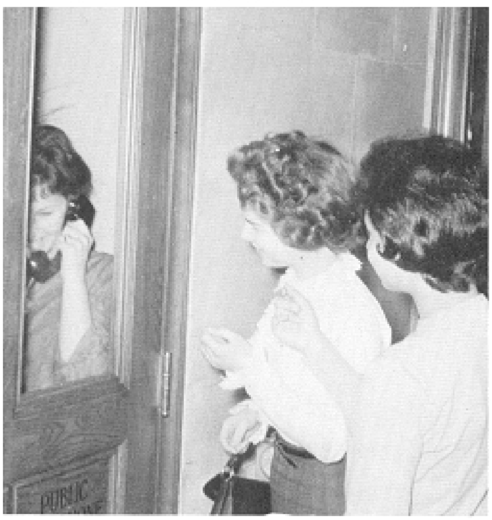

We were soon initiated to the mysteries of that P.H.S. institution, the checking lines or "The Students' League of Wall Supporters." Even the girls tried it once in a while, no doubt to feel what it is like to have a solid wall under their backs.

And the football games! We'll never forget the trampled fingers, the muddy benches, the wild frenzy as the team scored again and again — and won!

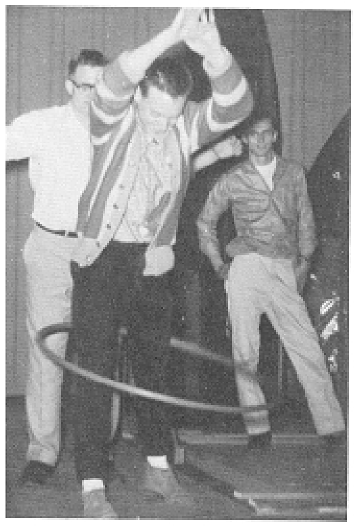

Do you remember this scene?
The bell had rung. You were still half way down the hall.

"Fine — except for one little thing."

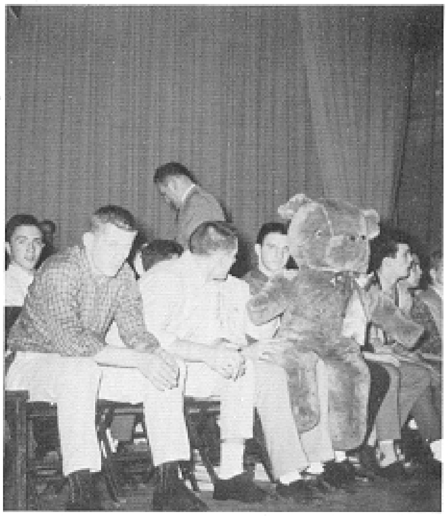

"You're going to be late for class!"

The grand-daddy of the twist

HISTORY

Ray's babysitting service

The door of your room slammed shut. Gingerly you opened it. (It sounded as if they hadn't oiled those hinges for years!) You slunk to your seat, somehow always in the farthest corner of the room. You grinned sheepishly at the teacher. "I'm late," you whispered foolishly as you self-consciously sat down, aware of every eye on you. Another class had begun normally!

Can you remember when the Student's Pen came out on time?
Mr. Blowe didn't have to break up the checking lines in the morning?
Pittsfield High was ever closed for weather?

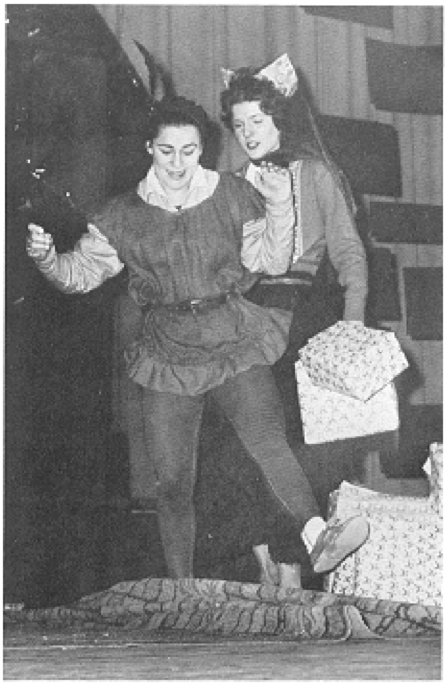

We shall never forget those moving Christmas pageants:
The Juggler of Notre Dame,
The Story of Chanukah and Christmas — these are a part of the spirit and memories of Christmas time.

Do you remember the nice way some people have of saying it's deficiency-time again?
". . . and the Great Pumpkin rises out of the pumpkin patch to bring presents to all good boys and girls."
". . . and tomorrow I'll have your Christmas presents all ready!" (Translation for both — "It's deficiency time!")

One cause of headache that even Bufferin could never erase was departmentals. And the cramming! "Late to bed, early to rise, makes for a wearier, but much wiser crammer."

And then it was "the Day of Reckoning," "Black Friday," or even "Doomsday." Sober faces and dark clothing were the order of the day. The atmosphere was tense and expectant; it was report card day.

And then there was Lunch, the "Gab Period." Not much was "Whoops! Who waxed that stage?"

"I thought he was proclaiming a holiday."

"The score couldn't have been that bad, fellows!"

Are you sure you added right?

eaten, but it was surprising how much could be said between the laughter and eating. Some very fine acrobats were developed at the third-lunch line, as students tried to get those last few cartons. R-e-a-c-h!

Do you remember the shiny, newly polished look everything had after a week's vacation . . . and how we took care of that in no time?

the importance of the bulletin and absentee list to the third period class, and how we felt, "In case of short bulletin read absentee lists"?

the checking before math class — and we don't mean checking people?

For those who liked to live dangerously, for those individualists who liked to walk up the down escalator or swim up a waterfall, we had a practice that was guaranteed to keep them in shape — if it didn't kill them outright or if a teacher didn't catch them — walking up the down stairs in the between-period crush.

Is this familiar?

You were walking down the third floor hall. Whew! Something was wrong! Chances were the odor could be traced to one of the chemistry rooms: the juniors were at it again! They had a ball while they smelled up the hall. Oh that hydrogen sulfide!

Remember those locker struggles in the mornings and afternoons? It was as though the War between the States were being fought over again — sectionalism was the cause. Which section goes first? Surely not both!

It wasn't the spirit that was lacking — it was the ticket supply.

There was the day we received our rings. There were never so many varicolored flashes in the halls. Everyone had to see everyone else's ring. "Lemme see yours." "What color did you get?" "Oh, that is beautiful!" The sophomores were dumbfounded and curious, the seniors tolerantly amused; they had been through all that before.

Do you remember when those St. Joe rallies were the debut of Fancy Nancy, the St. Joe cheerleaders, and José Schwarz?
everyone came back from vacation rested?
you even studied for a test the night before the night before?

The wild, wild west of Annie Oakley rang through the halls in our Junior Year. With a flash of color and a burst of song, Annie Get Your Gun gave the whole of Pittsfield a rip snortin', double-barreled blast of fun.

A chronic ailment in P.H.S. was the clockwatcher's disease. Every room was a contagion ward . . . There was something in the atmosphere. But somehow school was never closed on account of it.

some of those one-sided telephone conversations we heard: "Hello . . . Who? . . . I'm sorry. You must have the wrong number."

swallowing the seeds of the tangerine that was passed around in language lab?

Can we ever forget the high spirited South Pacific, a lively slice of South Sea island spice. The enchantment of its haunting melodies, gay, catchy tunes, the pungent wit and dialogue — all these are part of our memories of P.H.S.

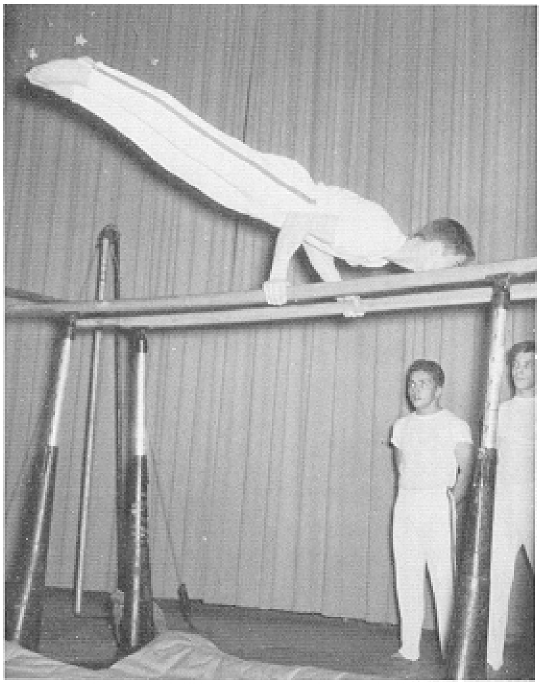

We salute our teams, every last one of them. They were the pluckiest, most determined, and winning-est that P.H.S. had seen for many a year. Their talents combined to make P.H.S. one of the most formidable schools of Berkshire County. May their clean, hard play, sportsmanship, and determination be our guide and example.

Class Day and graduation — we performed our last duties as Seniors. We gave the responsibility of leadership to the Junior Class in the moving candle-lighting ceremony and said goodbye to high school days. The stirring strains and stately rhythm of "Alma Mater" and "Pomp and Circumstance" guided our footsteps onto the the path of the future.

No, we will never forget these things; they will remain a part of our hearts, our memories of Pittsfield High School.
